Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Arabic, covering the main body of the page. The text is arranged in approximately 12 horizontal lines. There are several large, decorative initial letters (possibly 'S' or 'Sh') at the beginning of certain lines, indicating the start of new sections or paragraphs. The ink is dark and the paper shows signs of age and wear.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page, with some lines showing signs of fading or wear. There are several large, dark ink blotches or stains, particularly in the center and lower right, which may be intentional markings or damage to the original document. The text appears to be a continuous narrative or record, possibly related to a legal or administrative matter, given the formal nature of the script and the presence of some larger, more prominent markings that could be signatures or official stamps.
